- Quiet 12 volt pump
- Stylish corner cover
- Clamping plate to grip floor covering.

Technical Information
see pages
19-23

Shower waste pump options available

Shower waste pump

To overcome situations where access to drainage is difficult a shower waste pump allows waste water to be pumped away, without the need to rely on a gravity fall.

All Chiltern Invadex shower trays can be fitted with a Shower Waste Pump (except Cardale where it comes as standard).

- Quiet and filterless pump
- Simple to install and maintain
- Audible alarm to indicate blockages
- Wiring block included

Portascreen Shower Screen

Containing the spray from a shower is made simple with the Portascreen shower guard, which allows a carer to assist on an open floor without getting wet. Highly portable (8.5 kg) and easy to handle, the Portascreen folds flat for storage.

Invaflo Shower Drain

Easy to install clamping plate for PVC floor membrane with built in gully for surface access. No earth bonding required under electrical regulations. Available in a choice of colours and lengths.

Warm air Body Dryer MK2

The Chiltern Invadex Body Dryer is ideal for those who find towel drying difficult or uncomfortable. Both simple to operate and hygienic to use, the Body Dryer soothes and relaxes aching joints and muscles.

- Slim profile makes the Body Dryer suitable for installation in any showering area or shower tray and enclosure.
- Tear drop pattern holes discharge warm, pressurised air that tones and invigorates the body.
- The touch control can be mounted in a convenient position, even on the floor, making it easy to use and helping to maintain independence for the user.

Technical Information

Technical Information see pages 19-23

How to work out whether you need a left or right handed shower tray

The position of the waste outlet determines the handing of the tray (as you look in on to the tray from the longest entry side) so if the waste outlet is on the right the tray is a right handed shower tray.

Space requirements

Contact your nearest Chiltern Invadex Office if you are unsure about space requirements for shower trays and enclosures.
